TOWN MEETINGS PLANNED

Two members of the Gloucester County Board of Supervisors will conduct individual district town meetings next week to discuss issues of importance with citizens.

On Wednesday, February 25th at 7 p.m., "Bobby" Crewe, Gloucester Point District representative will hold his town meeting at Abingdon Elementary School. Information on the FY10 budget process will be provided and Mr. Crewe will offer an opportunity for community members to share their ideas and comments on budget priorities, suggested reductions, important services and/or other areas of concern or interests.

On Thursday, February 26th at 7 p.m., Teresa Altemus, York District representative will conduct her town meeting at Achilles Elementary School. In addition to providing information on the FY10 budget process, information will also be provided on the 2009 reassessment process. An additional town meeting is planned by Ms. Altemus on Tuesday, March 31st for further comments on the FY10 county budget, as the proposed county budget will have been presented for board review and public comment in mid-March.

All interested citizens are invited to attend the town meetings to learn more about these important county issues and to share their comments, concerns, or questions. For general information about the town meetings, please contact the Gloucester Department of Community Education, 693-5730.
