

BEAVERDAM PARK PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Hours Change

Sunday, March 8

In observance of Daylight Savings Time, the park will open at 6:30 AM and close at 7:30 PM for the remainder of the month of March.

Geocaching

Sunday, March 8

2:00 – 4:30 pm

There are numerous geo-caches at Beaverdam Park and throughout Gloucester. Learn how to use a Global Positioning System (GPS) to participate in a new and growing sport. James Mason of the Rivah Country Geocachers will conduct a short introduction to GPS and caching and then the group will have a practical experience in a search for a cache. Dress for the weather and at least a three-mile hike. Fee $3/adult & $2/under 10, deadline Wednesday March 4. Activity Number: 370705 – 01

Bass Tournament

Saturday, March 21

6:00 AM

The 2009 Big Bash Open Bass Tournaments at Beaverdam Park will begin on March 21ST. The park continues the series of five open tournaments for fisherman to accumulate points towards a final closed Big Bash Classic Tournament in October. Tournaments will be held on the third Saturday in March, April, May, June and September. The top 25% of teams will compete in the final closed tournament to determine Beaverdam Park's top fisherman of the season in October. The entry fee per tournament is $30 per boat for annual pass holders and $35 per boat for non-pass holders. For more information on this tournament season, contact Beaverdam Park, 693-2107. Weigh-in begins at 3 PM.

Mutt March and Dog Show

Sunday, March 22

2:00 – 4:30 pm

In conjunction with the Gloucester Mathews Humane Society, we are providing dogs and their persons a chance to socialize and enjoy the great outdoors at Beaverdam. Activities will be centered at the Smith Shelter at the park's Main Entrance. A dog show will be held following the walk. A photographer will be on site for pet and person photos. Fee $5, deadline Wednesday, March 18. Activity Number: 370707 - 01
