Gloucester Visitors Center

Located in the Colonial Courthouse Annex, the Gloucester Visitors Center features a Gift Shop, dedicated Werowocomoco exhibit room, and improved information access. Not only is the Visitor Center a source for maps, brochures and information but it also has a gift shop full of unique items. At the gift shop, you will find a variety of historical books, mugs, local honey, postcards, souvenirs, jewelry, children’s items, t-shirts, Daffodil Festival souvenirs, Virginia is for Lovers merchandise, hats, ornaments, Whitley’s nuts, Gloucester decals, and more. Additionally, the gift shop features a collection of handcrafted items made by local artist. New items are always being added, so check back frequently for that perfect gift!

Gloucester Museum of History

Hours: Monday-Saturday, 11am-3pm. Closed Sundays and Holidays.

A popular exhibit at the Museum is the original oil painting of Civil War General W. B. Taliaferro reviewing the last general muster of the Gloucester Militia at Roaring Springs Plantation the 4th Saturday in May 1860. Painted by Robert E Goodier (1925-1999), the painting has been donated to the Gloucester Museum of History by his family.

The second floor of the Gloucester Museum of History is also open to the general public. The theme of the eight station exhibit is "Echoes From The Past, Six Periods of Gloucester History." The exhibit traces Gloucester's rich history and varied contributions from 5 million years ago, when the area was covered by a warm tropical sea, to the Civil War, when it gave both a General to the Confederate Army and was home to James D. Gardner, who rose from oysterman to become the only recipient of a Congressional Medal of Honor from the area while serving in the Union Army. Other exhibits include: Archaeological findings from "Paradise" (home of the Lees), Archaeological findings from the Fairfield Plantation, Bacon's Rebellion, Gloucester's participation in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Civil Wars, and Native Americans just to name a few.

Volunteers Needed

How would you like to meet interesting travelers from all over the state, nation, and world, as well as some locals? The Gloucester Visitor Center & Museum of History are looking for volunteers to do just that and more! As a volunteer you will engage with visitors while providing them with welcoming guides, brochures and useful information on Gloucester and its surrounding areas. Contact Amy Steele, Visitor Services Coordinator, at 804-824-2476, or email asteele@gloucesterva.info and she will be happy to meet and discuss the great benefits of volunteering for Gloucester Tourism!

WOODVILLE PARK is growing every day with the help of the generous citizens of Gloucester County. Woodville Park is approximately 100 acres in size and is located in Hayes off of Bray’s Point Road. The park started with a gift to Gloucester County of 100 acres by the Lanciano Family. This nature park contains both wetlands and woodlands, athletic fields and reflective gardens, walking paths and hiking trails. The site plan is available online to see what else is in store for the future of the park. There are several athletic fields, a sand volleyball/soccer court, picnic areas, community gardens, a memorial walk and two ponds. The construction of the park has been made possible by the generosity of individuals and businesses who have donated money and time and over $800,000 in grant funds. The park won the Best New Park Award in 2013 from the Virginia Recreation and Park Society. Volunteers are always needed. Upcoming work will include field preparation, garden maintenance, trail clearing and more plantings. If you would like to help please contact us at prt@gloucesterva.info. Memorial bricks and benches are also available for purchase to remember your loved ones. For more pictures and updates follow us on Facebook. www.facebook.com/parkpartners.

BRIGHT STAR
Inspired by real events and featuring the bluegrass-tinged Grammy-nominated Steve Martin and Edie Brickell score, Broadway’s Bright Star is a sweeping tale of love and redemption set against the rich backdrop of the 1920s and 1940s American South. When literary editor Alice Murphy meets a young soldier just home from WWII, he awakens her longing for the child she once lost. Haunted by their unique connection, Alice sets out on a journey to understand her past – and what she finds has the power to transform both of their lives. Propelled by an ensemble of onstage musicians and dancers, the story unfolds as a rich tapestry of deep emotion, beautiful melodies and powerfully moving performances. An uplifting theatrical journey that holds you tight in its grasp, Bright Star is as refreshingly genuine as it is daringly hopeful. Riverside Dinner Theater, Fredericksburg. Lunch included.
