

MANDATORY PREAPPLICATION MEETING PROCESS FOR REZONING, CONDITIONAL USE PERMITS AND SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS

Preapplication meeting process and guiding principles

The preapplication meeting process is intended to guide applicants through the submittal and review process. Per Administrative Policy Number 740, a preapplication meeting is required with each prospective applicant prior to the submittal of a Rezoning (RZ), Conditional Use Permit (CUP), or Special Exception (SE) application. Subsequent to a preapplication meeting, an applicant may be advised to attend a site plan committee meeting to obtain additional information about what may be required from other departments and agencies.

A mandatory preapplication meeting is intended to manage applicants' expectations about the application process as well as provide for an application that is in the most complete form possible, by having staff assisting the applicant to consider all aspects of the zoning request prior to application submittal.

When a meeting is held to discuss more general concepts and options for development, and the specific scope of the project is not yet known, then the meeting will likely be considered an "inquiry" and not a preapplication meeting.

Preapplication meeting purposes are to:

- Provide the applicant and County staff with a common understanding of the proposed project;
- Inform the applicant about the proposed project's consistency with the Comprehensive Plan, other relevant policies, and County regulations;
- Broadly identify the planning, zoning and other issues raised by the application that the applicant will need to address in the application submittal;
- Inform the applicant about the applicable review procedure including adjacent property owner notification, advertisement in local paper, Public Hearings before Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors and/or Board of Zoning Appeals; and
- Determine the scope of information the applicant will need to submit with the application, which may include a traffic impact analysis, fiscal and economic impact analysis, and cultural, historic, and environmental information.

For inquiries (since in-depth, detailed information is rarely provided or multiple scenarios are discussed) staff's comments will be general in nature. For mandatory meetings on a project expected to be submitted in the short-term, staff will provide more detailed comments and specify information that must be submitted with the application, based on the narrative and other information provided by the applicant at, or prior to, the mandatory preapplication meeting.

To schedule a preapplication meeting, submit the following form and preapplication checklist to the Department of Planning and Zoning. The applicant will be contacted within two weeks (ten business days) of the date the pre- application is received to schedule a preapplication meeting.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Each of these processes require a public hearing and notification to adjacent property owners. The purpose of the public hearing is to determine whether the proposed action – Rezoning, Special Exception, or Conditional Use Permit – is acceptable to the community using the processes and criteria established in the ordinance. Approval is not guaranteed. During the public hearing process, the neighbors and the community at large have an opportunity to share their concerns and support with the decision-making body and to try to influence the decision to address those concerns or encourage approval or denial.

Staff Check Off	COMMUNITY CHARACTER AND QUALITY OF LIFE
	Have you reached out to the adjoining property owners and neighbors to determine any concerns or potential opposition to the project?
	Does the proposal address identified concerns?

	You will have to read and sign the proffer policy prior to application.
	Do you understand that staff cannot discuss proffers for residential rezoning?
	Do you understand that if you do provide a proffer, it is up to you to provide the documentation for why the proffer is needed and why it is reasonable based on the impacts of the proposed rezoning?
