Gloucester County Administrator, J. Brent Fedors, announces the hiring of Daniel K. Thomas as County Assessor. Mr. Thomas will report for his first day with Gloucester County on December 16, 2019.

Thomas joins Gloucester with 35 years' experience in the assessment and appraisal industry. He was most recently employed as Assessor for the City of Milford Connecticut, where he consistently provided a high level of service. This handbook is used State-wide as the guide for Boards of Assessment Appeals in all jurisdictions.

Brent Fedors, Gloucester County Administrator stated, "Finding the right candidate for this role was challenging to say the least, but I am thrilled that we were able attract and retain such a highly qualified leader for our Assessment group. Daniel's knowledge, skills, and abilities are an excellent match for this key role in our organization that directly impacts every citizen in our community."

Mr. Thomas is excited about this opportunity and shared, "I feel honored to become a member of the Gloucester County community and I am grateful for the initial trust that the County has shown in selecting me to assist the County in establishing fair and equitable assessments. My family is very excited about moving to Gloucester and we look forward to taking advantage of all that this lovely area has to offer."
