CITIZENS NEEDED FOR GO GREEN ADVISORY COMMITTEE AND CLEAN COMMUNITY COMMITTEE

The Gloucester County Board of Supervisors seeks interested community members to serve on the Go Green Advisory Committee. This Committee serves as the advisory body for the Board of Supervisors; the Committee shall determine, research, analyze, and propose methods for Gloucester County to promote and implement “green/sustainable” technology methods and practices within the County.

The Gloucester County Board of Supervisors also seeks interested community members to serve on the Clean Community Committee. This Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Board of Supervisors and county staff on matters related to litter prevention, solid waste management, recycling, and beautification.

Interested community members are asked to submit a Gloucester County Volunteer Board Bank interest form available on the county’s website at www.gloucesterva.info by clicking on “Services” and selecting “Volunteer Board Bank Registration” or by contacting the Department of Community Engagement and Public Information at 693-5730.
