The Virginia Chamber of Commerce remains committed to providing the most up-to-date COVID-19 information and resources for businesses throughout the Commonwealth. We would like to thank the business community for taking this challenge seriously. We have been impressed by the ingenuity of the business community to do everything possible to maintain the stream of commerce, while keeping the health of our workforce and all Virginians as the top priority.

As our government and business leaders consider how to best recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, the Virginia Chamber Commerce has announced the launch of its “Blueprint for Getting Virginians Back to Work” initiative which will provide recommendations on operating in the current economic climate caused by COVID-19 and how to return stronger than before. The Virginia Chamber will be collecting input from members of the business community to develop this initiative.

Below you will find the full press release detailing today’s announcement.

Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development

The impact of the novel coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic has reached almost all sectors of our economy. The federal government has issued several forms of relief but it can be hard to navigate all the information and programs currently out there. We have created a website to keep businesses stakeholders engaged and informed on relief available to them. For the latest information, please refer to the Secretary of Commerce and Trade COVID-19 Resource page. We appreciate you as a partner with the Commonwealth and look forward to working with you in the future.

Gloucester Businesses please submit business reports weekly

Gloucester County is assessing the economic impacts to local businesses due to the threat of COVID-19, in an effort to report them accurately to state and federal partners. Additional assistance may be available if the County reaches certain thresholds in overall impact. We ask all local business partners to report any economic impacts to Gloucester's Business Recovery Coordinator, Sherry Spring, on a weekly basis so that we may better assist you. Please email reports every Friday by noon each week with any losses you incur.
